

Releases April 27,2027

IMPRINT: Moon + Bird
ISBN: 9781917194624
BIND: Paperback
256 Pages
TRIM SIZE: 210 x 140 mm
PRICE: $13.99

PERFECT FOR:
Middle-grade readers who enjoy fast-paced mysteries, detective work, and real-world technology.

melissajohnstonmiles.com

A high-stakes adventure thriller perfect for 8-12 year olds about a young podcaster pushed on the run after spotting a supposedly dead senator on a livestream.

After a summer of non-stop news footage of Senator Jefferson Morgan's suspicious death just days before his testimony against the global crime ring Double Helix, Dominic does not expect to spot him in live webcam footage of Times Square looking very ... alive!

Dominic knows he saw him, but he can't convince anyone to believe him. Desperate to prove he's right, and to bring Senator Morgan to justice, Dominic creates a podcast to share his conclusions about Morgan's identity. It goes viral in a way he never imagined.

Can Dominic uncover the real story behind Senator Morgan's fake death and evade underworld operatives, all while figuring out who to trust?

About the Author

Melissa Johnston Miles is a pediatric nurse and certified K-12 educator, passionate about community literacy. Her work has been featured in The School Magazine and several flash fiction anthologies from Vine Leaves Press.

She runs the nonprofit Superhero Success Foundation, which funds scholarships and donates books to children's hospitals, camps, schools, and libraries. CAUGHT ON CAMERA is her debut middle-grade novel, which won the SCBWI Work In Progress award for middle grade in 2025.

North American distribution through Penguin Random House. Available wherever books are sold.